DECEMBER BREAKFAST

We had 39 for breakfast this morning. Les and Ezelda Goodrich attended and said they were previous members around 2002. Maybe some of you that are in Florida will remember them. Welcome back to them. We did have one motorcycle rider today, Walt Armbruster, so he had quite a cool ride this morning even with his heated grips. I told him to try riding without his gloves and maybe he could feel the heat better.

Would you believe there wasn't anyone attending this morning that had a birthday this month. Ted tried to donate the birthday drawing to himself but that didn't happen.

The 50/50 was won by Linda Karl, she said it would help with their trip to Florida for the winter. The scratch-offs were drawn by Penny Grosslinger (2x and also won $2.00 on one), Dave Davidson (2x), Elsa Varrecchia, Deb Trask, Bernie Rasmussen, Don Harvey, and Stephen Romanski who also won $1.00.

There isn't too much going on at this time of year, other than our breakfast and mid-month luncheons, but just a reminder that it is time to renew your memberships, it you can't make it to the breakfast or luncheon, you can mail it to Elma. Her address is on the newsletter.

We hope everyone had a good Thanksgiving and a great Christmas coming up.

Until next month,

Terri

Let's Meet for Lunch

We had a good turn out today at The Depot, I wrote the numbers down but then couldn't find it but I'm pretty sure there were 19 of us. There were a lot of different orders but I can say my pizza was good and I even had 3 slices left over to take home. If you like their Pizza, you can order it to go un-cooked and they will give you every thing you need to make and cook it at home.

Elma won the 50/50 and Ted and I brought one of our bottles of wine to give away after the drawing which was won by Jim and Marcy.

It was a nice sunny day and I think everyone attending had a good time. Maybe we'll see you at next month's luncheon at Brooks BBQ.

Until next month,

Terri
